NOTICE

Beware of Fake WhatsApp Groups

It has come to the notice of the College that certain unidentified persons have created fake WhatsApp groups using the name and official logo of Narasinha Dutt College and are falsely claiming them to be the official WhatsApp groups of the College.

Students, guardians, and all stakeholders are hereby informed that the College has not created or authorized any such WhatsApp group. Official WhatsApp groups, whenever required for academic or administrative purposes, shall be created and administered only by teachers or academic departments authorized by the College. No student or any other unauthorized person is permitted to create or operate any WhatsApp group in the name of the College or any of its departments as an official group.

All students are advised to:

- Join only those WhatsApp groups that are created and administered by the teachers/ departments authorized by the College.
- Verify the authenticity of any WhatsApp group claiming to represent the College before joining or acting upon any information shared therein.
- Never share personal information, academic credentials, bank account details, OTPs, passwords, or any other confidential information through unauthorized groups.
- Rely only on the official website of the College and communications issued by authorized teachers or departments or the College Office for authentic information.
- Immediately report any suspicious WhatsApp group or message using the College's name or logo to the College Office.

The College shall not be responsible for any misinformation, financial loss, or any other consequences arising from participation in unauthorized WhatsApp groups.

Students are requested to remain vigilant and cooperate with the College in preventing the misuse of its name and identity.
